

Hyekyeong Hannah Cho NCTM / Piano

South Korean-born pianist Hannah Cho is an active and versatile piano performer as a soloist and collaborative pianist. She also actively involves piano pedagogy as a piano adjudicator of WSMTA and a jury member of many piano competitions.

She has had numerous concerts at many concert halls as a soloist and a collaborative Pianist in South Korea, Bulgaria, Japan and U.S. at many venues include Carnegie Weill Hall. She has soloed with Dong-A university Orchestra, Vidin Symphony and Pancho Vladigerov Orchestra in Bulgaria which widely broadcasted on TV and radio. She won several competitions including the Korea

Music Association piano Competition, American Protégé International Competition and the American Prize Competition.

She also has been managed many music concerts with her “He-a Art & Music” musicians group. Among many these concerts, she performed several benefit concerts and she happened to receive the certification for appreciation from Governor of Washington State in 2009.

She earned a Bachelor Degree in piano performance at Dong-A university with full scholarship under Prof. HyeSun Park and Prof. Young Moon Cho. After that she moved to Bulgaria to study with worldly famous pianist and piano pedagogue Prof. Anton Dikov. She also studied Collaborative Piano, Piano pedagogy with Prof. Daniela Dikova, Prof. Elena Dikova. She earned a Master Degree in Piano performance and she also finished “Konzertexamen” degree in Pancho Vladigerov- National music Academy in Sofia in Bulgaria.

Currently, she is working at St. Martin’s University as a piano faculty of Lacey, WA and as a worship pianist at Tacoma First Baptist Church of Tacoma, WA. She is a piano adjudicator of WSMTA and she is a performing member of Ladies Musical Club in Seattle, WA. She is also actively studying and researching about “Body Mapping Study” with Prof. Lisa Marsh at Body mapping center at Portland. OR.