A Live Virtual Event

SAVE THE DATE!

Dear Students and Parents:

The EMTA Musicianship Festival (EMF) is back! But this year, we will be having a VIRTUAL LIVE event! The theme is “Superheroes Unite!” This year’s festival will be held Saturday, May 15th, from the comfort of your home at approximately 9:00am to 4:00 p.m. Students win a ribbon for each category they enter. They can enter up to 9 events, so they may very well win a handful of ribbons!

The Edmonds Music Teachers Association (EMTA) holds this event primarily as a fundraiser for our annual Joan E. Brown Scholarship. 100% of the $30.00/student fee goes to either cover expenses or to fund the scholarship.

If you wish to participate, please complete and return this form to me by _____. I will give you more information once the schedule is posted.

Start thinking about which events you will register for. You can choose up to 3 MLP events and 4 Options. You may also enter a project, and/or a composition for a total of 9. We’ll talk in detail about your options during your lessons. Please mark an X after events you’d like to enter.

Edmonds Musicianship Festival (EMF) Help Wanted! Tech Savvy Adults and Teenagers (even students):

In order to make this ONLINE EVENT a total success, we need your help! If you are comfortable with technology, and co-hosting Zoom sessions, we need Zoom hosts that can help moderate a room but “letting people in”, answering questions in the chat box, and all the other elements that make an online meeting successful! That way, the teachers can focus on judging the students! You need no musical expertise, just a willingness to give of your time. Other areas for volunteering are listed below! Community service hours will gladly be given. Teen music students 13 and older can have volunteer positions scheduled around their event times. Please complete this form and return to your teacher or contact the Musicianship Festival Chair (contact information is below).

Would you offer your assistance?
